

License/Permits Required

Business/Occupational License are required if a business is located in or operating in the City of Wood Heights city limits. License applications may be obtained at the Wood Heights City Hall.

Business License fee is $35 per year.

(Also a reminder to always check with the City before purchasing land or starting a business within the City limits, to determine if the location within the City is properly zoned for the type of business you are wanting to start.)

Building Permits are required when building new construction or additions. Please be aware that this applies to the homeowner or contractor that is doing the work. Business license for contractors are required as well when operating inside the city limits. Inspections are a part of this process and may have a separate fee.

Fence Permits fall under building permits and are required. There are specific requirements that have to be met in order to install a fence on your property.

Electrical and Plumbing Permits are required as well. Please check with City Hall for details. Inspections are a part of this process and may have a separate fee.

Sign Permits are required in Wood Heights city limits. Please check with City Hall for details if you are planning to erect a sign of any kind.

Garage Sale Permits are required in Wood Heights. While there is no fee for the permit you still have to fill out a permit application. Wood Heights residents are allowed two (2) garage sales per year as well as City Wide Garage Sales as scheduled.

Dog License are required. You must show a current rabies vaccination and pay a fee based on whether your pet is spayed or neutered. There are leash laws as well in the City of Wood Heights. You cannot allow your pets to run free. Please be courteous and don't allow your pets to roam the neighborhood.

Chicken Permits are required in Wood Heights. There are limitations to the number of chickens/pigeons that you may have based on the size of your property along with requirements for proper containment and care. Please check with City Hall for specific requirements. License are $20 per year and run from January to December.

Out of Season Fireworks Display Permits are required in Wood Heights and may be obtained at Wood Heights City Hall. This is a new ordinance in Wood Heights, if you have any questions please call Wood Heights City Hall.